

MAKING GREAT PRESENTATIONS

Presented By:
Barbara Nelson, Nelson Communications

Seize this opportunity to become comfortable and confident making presentations, whether they are to the general public or your own co-workers! Barbara Nelson of Nelson Communications will help you hone the skills necessary for a great presentation and give you a chance to practice them! In this workshop, you will deliver several short presentations, which will be videotaped, and you will receive feedback from course participants as well as the camera. Shy? Not to worry, Barbara will help ease you into your comfort zone where you'll come across like Ellen DeGeneres at the Academy Awards . . . well, almost.
